

Making Personal Connections

Personal connection chart

Directions for completing the organizer:

1. Record the title and author of the story.
2. In the first column, compare this story to another story that you have read.
3. In the second column, compare this story to something that has happened to you.
4. In the third column, compare this story to something that has happened in the world.

