Healthy and Happy

Can you think of movies that have dog actors? The movie “101 Dalmatians” does. There are 250 dogs in the movie! People made sure the dogs stayed safe. They made sure the dogs got food and water. They made sure the dogs got rest and plenty of space too.

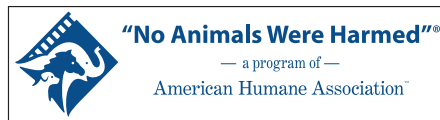

Your Eyes Can Fool You

No dogs were hurt in the making of the movie. In one part, a clock falls on a dog’s head. The clock looks heavy. It was not. It was made out of special paper. It did not hurt the dog at all. At the end of the movie, it says “No Animals Were Harmed.”[®] Look for these words at the end of all movies!

1. What are four things dog actors need?

2. What does the author mean by “Your Eyes Can Fool You”? _____

3. Underline the words you should look for at the end of movies.

Kindness 100: American Humane Association is celebrating the 100th anniversary of Be Kind to Animals Week[®] in 2015 by focusing on the humane treatment of farm animals and animal actors, the importance of adopting pets from a shelter and including them in family disaster plans, and caring about the world’s endangered and disappearing creatures.
